

Cotton Patch Quilt Guild
Internet Advertising of Professional Quilt Related Goods and Services

The Board of Cotton Patch Quilter's Guild has voted to allow members in good standing to advertise their quilt related business on a special page of the Guild website.

These are the policies that relate to the advertisements:

- This page will be accessible by guild members as well as the general public.
- Products and services advertised must be quilting related and professional in nature (ie...for the general public).
- There will be a limit to the amount and type of information that can be posted. See the attached page for a complete listing.
- All advertisements will be presented in the same format. There will be NO special layouts allowed.
- You may provide one photo or company logo that will be displayed with your information.
- Be sure to provide general information as the advertisement can only be updated two times during the guild year (from July 1 to June 30).
- All information and any requested updates must be provided to the Internet Chair in writing.
- Advertisements will be listed in the order received.
